Dear Ms. Wang:

The CEA Policies and Procedures require CEA to prepare a brief statement summarizing the reasons for the agency's denial of accreditation to a program or institution. The statement is forwarded the site for responsive comment. The statement along with the site's comment, if any, is then forwarded to the U.S. Department of Education, the appropriate office at the Department of Homeland Security, licensing bodies and the public. If no response is made, CEA must provide evidence to the U.S. Department of Education that the site has been offered the opportunity to comment.

Following is the information that CEA will publish to the relevant parties, along with your responsive comment, if any. You may make general comments about the process and findings but should not respond to findings for each individual standard. CEA reserves the right to redact comments which are inflammatory or which do not pertain to the reasons for the denial as stated in CEA's statement below.
